Prioritize

Am I willing to be disciplined?

The Christian life isn't something we do, it's everything we do!

Volition

volition
noun: the power of choosing or exercising one's will; willpower; volition; the exercise of will; an act of will.

Volition is the deliberate intentional employment of that system of thought that best enables the continuation (pattern) to serve its purpose.

Oh, such thought not Mr. Love but, me then the way you think, we then it write well

For the Kingdom there is the desire to understand the Lord's ways; through the cancer of thoughts will make the pressure over.

How do we make decisions on all others behalf?

We are the operators - Christ - Holy Spirit - Father - Angels - Satan - We are the others (our necessary will to pass through)

We are the others (our necessary will to pass through)

We are the others (our necessary will to pass through)

Volition is the power of choosing or exercising one's will; willpower; volition; the exercise of will; an act of will.

Volition is the deliberate intentional employment of that system of thought that best enables the continuation (pattern) to serve its purpose.

Oh, such thought not Mr. Love but, me then the way you think, we then it write well

Disciple (Greek: μαθητής, mathētēs) literally means "student", "learner", or "one who is being taught". It is used in the New Testament to describe someone who follows the teachings of Jesus Christ and adopts his way of life. The term implies not just intellectual learning but a lifelong commitment to imitate the master in character, obedience, and service.