Let's do our best and care not to be seen as showcasing and increasing our knowledge, but rather as Bible servers. So that we are deliberately sharing things we've learnt, and in turn, we end up much deeper into our faith.

Writing down what we learn, and sharing it with others, helps us to remember what we've learnt and also to be able to teach others. Things in the end are of right here the above the Holy Spirit, and

2.1. Tongues: was it an intelligible or unintelligible utterance?

1 Corinthians 14:2 (NIV)
2 For anyone who speaks in a tongue does not speak to people but to God. Indeed, no one understands him; he utters mysteries by the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 14:4 (NIV)
4 Anyone who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church.

1 Corinthians 14:14 (NIV)
14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my understanding is unfruitful.

1 Corinthians 14:15 (NIV)
15 What then shall I do? I will pray with the spirit and I will also pray with my understanding; I will sing with the spirit and I will also sing with my understanding.

1 Corinthians 14:16 (NIV)
16 If you are praising God with your spirit, how can someone else, who has the place of an outsider, say "Amen" to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying?

1 Corinthians 14:17 (NIV)
17 For you may be giving thanks well enough, but the other man is not edified.

1 Corinthians 14:3 (NIV)
3 But the man who prophesies speaks to people for their edification, encouragement and comfort.

1 Corinthians 14:5 (NIV)
5 I wish that you all speak in tongues, but I would rather you prophesied. The man who prophesies is greater than the man who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets so that the church may be edified.

1 Corinthians 14:6 (NIV)
6 Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what good will I be to you unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching?

1 Corinthians 14:26 (NIV)
26 What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, or a teaching, or a revelation, or a tongue, or an interpretation. Let everything be done for edification.

Romans 15:2 (NIV)
2 Each of us should please his neighbor for his good, to build him up.

1 Corinthians 14:12 (NIV)
12 So you, since you are eager for spiritual gifts, seek to excel in them for the edification of the Holy Spirit's people.

Romans 14:19 (NIV)
19 Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification.

1 Corinthians 14:26 (NIV)
26 What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, or a teaching, or a revelation, or a tongue, or an interpretation. Let everything be done for edification.

2.2. Tongues: a complete or incomplete language?
