"The times of the gentiles" began in 605 BC with the Babylonian captivity, due to Israel's rebellious against God, and it will end at the conclusion of the seven years of the second coming of Christ.

Luke 21:24 (NKJV)
24 And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled by Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Gentiles are given political power as described in Daniel's vision of the four kingdoms in human history up the point we are at which would now be the last kingdom, the Iron Legs that have been in power since the times of the Gentiles began.

The fourth beast being most dreadful than the previous, and under its power the church age would fulfill its time.

Daniel 7:7 (NKJV)
7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and broke in pieces, and trampled the remains with its feet; it was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

After the church age, the age of Israel will begin again, this is when God will pour out his wrath upon the world which will be the seven years of the tribulation, which is referred by the appearance of the seven seals and seven trumpets and seven vials of wrath contained in the "fullness of the Gentiles has come in".

Revelation 11:15 (NKJV)
15 Then the seventh angel sounded: And there were great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!"

The Day of the Lord
The Day of God's wrath
The Day of Christ's return
The Day of the Lord's return

The Day of the Lord
the Day of Wrath

THE WRATH OF GOD

THE WRATH OF THE LAMB

"The day of the Lord" is not a technical phrase.
It is not used exclusively pertaining to Daniel's 70th week and Israel pleasure that attain to their Day of the Lord and the great day of the Lord God Almighty and the day of God's eternal wrath

Isaiah 2:12 (NKJV)
12 For the day of the LORD of hosts
Shall be upon everything proud and lofty,
And upon everything lifted up—
And it will be brought low—

Revelation 6:17 (NKJV)
17 For the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?

Some of these terms are sometimes used pointing to previous times of God's judgment. They don't always point to Daniel's 70th week

Moreover, all these terms do not contain Daniel's 70th week but are their fulfillment
the coming of the Lord, judgment and wrath, including Daniel's 70th week

The broadest use of the phrase "The day of the Lord" refers to:

Seven Years of Great Tribulation.
Daniel's seventieth week.

1st, in a narrow sense, the phrase "the day of the Lord" would point to that moment when God returns to fight for Israel and cleanse the earth like His kingdom of sin.

2nd, in a broad sense, the phrase "the day of the Lord" refers to a time of God's special intervention for the cause of God's order for the cause of Israel
for the cause of the nations for the cause of the world for the cause of the kingdom of God for the cause of the Messiah

When the Lord Jesus returns, He is coming into his own on the earth, having been rejected and crucified by the Jews.

Revelation 19:11-16 (NKJV)
11 Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on it was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.
12 His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except himself.
13 He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called the Word of God.
14 And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses.
15 Out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. "He will rule them with a rod of iron." He treads the winepress of the fierce wrath of Almighty God.
16 And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written: KING of kings and LORD of lords.

Expressing Christ's position of authority and of kingship
Revelation 19:16
Matthew 2:2 Where is He who is born King of the Jews?
John 18:37 Pilate said to him, "Are you a king then?" Jesus answer, "You say that I am a king. For this cause I was born and for this cause I came into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice."

The prince of Israelite "Messiah" Daniel 9:25 Know therefore and understand: From the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem Unto the Messiah the Prince, there shall be seven weeks and sixty two weeks; the street shall be built again, and the wall even in troublesome times.
