TRUTH (through context is the goal in Bible study)

Revelation 1:1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John,

Revelation 1:2 who bore witness to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all he saw.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed are those who read aloud the words of this prophecy, and those who listen to it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

Revelation 1:4 John, to the seven churches in the province of Asia: Grace and peace to you from the one who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits before his throne,

Revelation 1:5 and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood,

Revelation 1:6 and has made us a kingdom and priests to serve his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

Revelation 1:7 Look, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and all the peoples of the earth will mourn because of him. So it will be. Amen.

Revelation 1:8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is, who was, who is to come, the Almighty.

Revelation 1:9 I, John, your brother, who share with you in Jesus the suffering and the kingdom and the patient endurance, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 1:10 On the day of the Lord I was in the Spirit, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet blast,

Revelation 1:11 which said: "Write on a scroll what you see and send it to the churches: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamum, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, to Laodicea."

Revelation 1:12 Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. And after I turned I saw seven golden lampstands,

Revelation 1:13 and among the lampstands I saw someone like a son of man, dressed in a long robe and with a golden sash around his chest.

Revelation 1:14 His head and his hair were white as white wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were like blazing fire.

Revelation 1:15 His feet were like bronze refined in a furnace, and his voice was like the roar of many waters.

Revelation 1:16 In his right hand he held seven stars, and from his mouth came a sharp double-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest.

Revelation 1:17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though I was dead. Then he laid his right hand on me and said: "Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last.

Revelation 1:18 I was dead, and now I am alive forever and ever! And I have the keys of death and Hades.

Revelation 1:19 Write down what you have seen, what is happening now, and what will happen later.

Revelation 1:20 As for the secret meaning of the seven stars you saw in my right hand and the seven golden lampstands, the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the churches.

Revelation.

7 Churches. 7 Angels
